- Moment of silence to recognize the valor of the Flagstaff Police Department and AZDPS personnel
- Emergency Management Presentation
 - There is currently an NAU Technician that services radios for all partners
 - The team handed out an emergency management brochure. This will also be added to Connect Flagstaff under handouts.
 - Research on other EM divisions in similar sized municipalities
 - No national standard
 - Best practice recommends three personnel for 75,000+ population
 - State is not forward leaning in EM
 - Coconino County EM has 4 personnel currently
 - NAU has 1 person dedicated to EM
 - NAH has 1 Emergency Manager
 - What are other municipalities in AZ doing?
 - Sedona started 6 months ago
 - Prescott
 - Yavapai County 4-5 people
 - Can ADOT share traffic barricades or other equipment needed? Contract and IGAs with State Departments and the Flagstaff Alliance to obtain assistance, but at times may not have resources available
 - Current EOC location? County would open EOC if one is needed. An incident command post at NACET facility. Requesting an EOC command trailer in case Coconino County is utilizing their EOC for their purposes and unable to support the City's needs. Coconino County is currently building an EOC and anticipate completion in three years.
- Next Meeting: February 25th 3:30 pm, Core Services or Microsoft Teams
